

RE, Assemblies and Collective Worship Resources

RE in the Classroom with 4-5s

Helen Jaeger

£7.99

50 easy-to-use Bible-based lesson plans for teaching essential life skills

Teaching RE to early years has to be relevant to everything else that young children are learning. The material in this book covers key learning areas for 4–5s such as playing fairly, developing independence, eating healthily, making friends and following rules.

The 50 lesson plans in this resource offer fun and interactive ways to explore these key areas through a creative game or activity, questions and discussion ideas, a Bible story and a reflection. This book has been designed for you to pick up and use straight away.

Valuing Money

Chris Hudson

£9.99

A 10-unit RE programme helping children unpack the real value of money

A cross-curricular resource for primary schools, enabling children to explore moral issues around our attitude to money and what it represents, and to think about what is truly valuable. Ten story-led lesson plans come with illustrations, Bible link stories and cross-curricular classroom activities, and three assembly outlines suitable for Collective Worship. With financial affairs regularly in the news, children can unpack what this means and how a moral understanding can impact our response.

36 Ready-to-Read Assemblies for Collective Worship

Helen Lings

£9.99

Taking your school through the Bible story in a year

Explore the Christian faith, providing familiarity with Bible stories and context for more widely known biblical references. The 36 key Bible passages cover a year, each accompanied by interactive questions, a thought for the day, prayer and hymn suggestion. Each assembly offers a choice of a traditional and contemporary version of the Bible and of classic and modern Christian prayers. The material looks at commonly read Bible texts, showing how they shape our thinking and perceptions.

Emotionally Intelligent RE
Cavan Wood
£7.99

Learning about our emotions from Bible stories

Essential to RE and PSHE teaching through a unique combination of Bible-based material with PSHE themes. With 25 lesson plans, a range of classroom activities, examining different emotions through the lens of a Bible story.

This is an enterprising volume, because it grasps a nettle that church primary schools often avoid: where does Personal, Social and Health Education stop, and RE start?... By my calculations it is 32p a lesson. If that gives me a weekend off from RE preparation, it is worth... more. Church Times

Teaching Narnia
Olivia Warburton
£6.99

Cross-curricular classroom and assembly resource

This book draws on C.S. Lewis's classic series, providing a wealth of ideas with RE, literacy, PSHE and citizenship applications.

This is a wonderful resource in which the stories are allowed to speak for themselves. The lesson plans provide a stimulating trigger for the imagination, and for creativity, and all of it in a meaningful way. Lewis wrote the Narnia Chronicles as children's stories... Their 'ancient power' shows why they have stood the test of time. Teachers can use this volume... with total confidence. Dennis Richards, Church Times
